

Introduction to Business 10

Course outline 2008-2009

Teacher: Ms. Cho

Room 103

Course Goals:

1. To understand the structure of business and economics
2. To develop personal financial skills
3. To develop and use research skills both within the school and the community
4. To develop and demonstrate written and oral business communication skills
5. To have the opportunity to explore various careers in business

Course Description:

This course is a fantastic introduction to the senior Business Education courses at Moscrop, or to any students interested in the field of business. This course will cover topics such as business and the individual, government and business, money and banking, marketing, accounting, law, consumer awareness, credit and personal finance, insurance and the working world. Through this project and current events driven course, you will be able to better understand the business world around you.

Course Materials:

Textbook: The World of Business, A Canadian Profile

Binder with looseleaf paper (for handouts, notes and homework)

Writing materials (pen or pencil)

Evaluation:

Homework and Assignments	40%
Group and Individual Projects	35%
Tests and Exams	25%

Weighting of Terms: Term 1 (30%), Term 2 (35%), and Term 3 (35%)

Course Expectations

As a member of this Classroom, I agree to the following...

1. I will attend class regularly, be on time and come to class prepared to work.
2. I understand that if I don't bring a note explaining my absence, I will not be able to make up any tests or quizzes (as a result, I will get a ZERO on the missed test or quiz)
3. I understand that late assignments or projects will be accepted at 10% off per day (not class) late, to a maximum of 50%.
4. I will show respect towards my classmates, my teacher and the classroom equipment.
5. I will ensure that MY OWN work is handed in for evaluation.
(There is NO tolerance for plagiarism and cheating on tests and quizzes. Both parties involved will get a ZERO and parents/guardians/administration will be notified)

By signing below, I have shown that I read and understand the above expectations and agree to follow them for the school year. ☺

(Student signature)