

Information and Communications Technology 11 and 12

MOSCROP SECONDARY SCHOOL 2010-2011

TEACHER:

This survey course will be constructed from the 4 areas of Information Technology as set out in the provincial IRP's found on the government website for education:

- Applied Digital Communications
- Digital Media Development
- Computer Information Systems
- Computer Programming

Each student will achieve learning outcomes for four of the modules listed above. The modules will depend on available software, textbooks and prerequisite knowledge, but will include 2 Computer Programming units.

Software:

- Photoshop
- Dreamweaver
- C++ and Java programming languages
- Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Access, Publisher)

Evaluation:

Assignments and projects	50%
Term projects	10%
Tests and Quizzes	40%

No food or drink allowed in the lab.